EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Maharishi University of Management and its educational programs, staff positions, and benefits are available to all people without distinction as to gender, age, race, religion, color, national or ethnic origin, handicap, or veteran's status. Institutions of higher education are required by law (Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1963, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990) to provide this broad access to their educational programs and to serve society in a way that treats, with equal dignity, the diversity of individuals and groups which comprise our society. Inquiries concerning Title IX, Section 504, and the Americans with Disabilities Act should be directed to the General Counsel's Office, Maharishi University of Management, Fairfield, Iowa 52557, (641) 472-1175.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The University reserves the right to change, at any time, without prior notice, programs of study, course offerings, academic requirements, the academic calendar, codes of student conduct, tuition, room and board charges, and other fees, policies, and procedures. The University will determine the times at which all such changes are effective. Changes may apply not only to prospective students but also to those who are already enrolled in the University.

The Maharishi University of Management Catalog of Courses is published for informational purposes and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and Maharishi University of Management. Every effort is made to provide information that is accurate at the time the Catalog is prepared. However, information concerning regulations, policies, fees, curricula, courses, and other matters contained in this Catalog is subject to change at any time during the period for which the Catalog is in effect. The Registrar's Office can be contacted at any time for current information on these matters.

Maharishi University of Management makes available to the public, upon request, all consumer information required by the Office of Education Rules and Regulations. Consumer information about the University includes, but is not limited to, the following: academic programs, educational costs, financial aid, academic progress requirements, student retention rates, and crime statistics. This information is available from the Registrar's Office, Enrollment Center, Dreier Building (mailing address: Fairfield, Iowa 52557).

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

Under the “Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974,” the following categories of “Directory Information” may be made public unless students desire to withhold disclosure of it:

CATEGORY I

Name, address, telephone number, dates of attendance, class

CATEGORY II

Major field of study, awards, honors (including Dean’s List), degree(s) conferred (including dates), previous institution(s) attended

CATEGORY III

Past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height, weight of athletes), date and place of birth

Students may withhold any category of “Directory Information” by notifying the Registrar’s Office in writing within two weeks after the first day of class during the fall registration period. Forms for this purpose are available from the Registrar’s Office and must be filed annually in that office to withhold any “Directory Information.”

The University ensures students access to their official University records and maintains the confidentiality of personally identifiable information in accord with federal law.
